New York Number Theory Seminar Sixteenth Annual Workshop on Combinatorial and Additive Number Theory

CUNY Graduate Center
May 22–25, 2018

The CUNY Graduate Center is located in midtown Manhattan at 365 Fifth Avenue, between 34th and 35th Streets, diagonally across the street from the Empire State Building. We are easily reached by bus and subway from anywhere in New York City. Moreover, Grand Central Station, New York Penn Station, and the Port Authority Bus Terminal are less than a 20 minute walk from the Graduate Center, so it is feasible to stay almost anywhere in the metropolitan region.

You must sign in at the front desk when you enter the building.

The Math Lounge is on the fourth floor.

LECTURE ROOMS

On Tuesday and Wednesday, the lecture room is C198, on the concourse level of the building, one floor below the main floor where you sign in. On Thursday and Friday, the lecture room is the Science Center on the fourth floor.

The meeting rooms are equipped with blackboards and a computer with digital projector. There is no overhead projector.

Coffee and muffins will be available every morning in the Math Lounge beginning about 8:00 a.m. Lectures begin at 9:00 a.m. Every afternoon there will be a problem session, followed by wine and cheese in the Math Lounge. There will be a pizza party on Wednesday afternoon, and Subway sandwiches on Thursday afternoon.

Computers with internet access are available in the math lounge on the fourth floor. There is also free WiFi throughout the Graduate Center, for which no password is required.

INTERNET

The Graduate Center provides free internet access throughout the building. Sign into GC guest. No password is necessary.

COFFEE

Coffee and muffins will be provided every morning, beginning at 8:15 a.m., on the fourth floor of the Graduate Center (in the Math Lounge on Tuesday and Wednesday and in the Science Center on Thursday and Friday).

Espresso, latte, etc. are also available in the coffee bar on the ground floor of the Graduate Center.

GOOD COFFEE

For more serious coffee, we recommend:

- (1) Good: Starbucks at the NE corner of 34th Street and Fifth Avenue.
- (2) Better: Stumptown Coffee in the Amazon bookstore at 7 West 34th Street, about 100 yards west of Fifth Avenue.
- (3) Even better: Maison Kayser at the NW corner of 34th Street and Fifth Avenue.

FOOD

An excellent cafeteria is on the 8th floor of the Graduate Center, and there are many restaurants in the neighborhood.

There is really great food in New York. Check Zagat's for vast and reliable information.

KOSHER FOOD

There are numerous kosher restaurants on 34th Street between Madison Avenue and Park Avenue, and also:

Jerusalem Cafe, 35 West 36th Street, and
Ben's Kosher Delicatessen, 209 W. 38th Street.

HOTELS

There are many hotels in the neighborhood of the CUNY Graduate Center, but none of them gives CUNY a special conference rate. Good deals can sometimes be found on the internet, for example, at hotels.com or booking.com. If you work for a state university or US government organization, you may be able to get a (usually very low) government rate for your hotel.

There is also airBnB for privately arranged short-term accomodation.
