CANT 2026

24th Annual Workshop on Combinatorial and Additive Number Theory

CUNY Graduate Center
365 Fifth Avenue, New York, NY

Monday, July 13, to Thursday, July 16 (in person and Zoom)

Friday, July 17, to Saturday, July 18 (Zoom only)

Information

1. ICM 2026 satellite conference

CANT 2026 is a satellite conference of the International Congress of Mathematicians (ICM 2026), which will meet in Philadelphia from Wednesday, July 22, to Thursday, July 30, 2026. There is frequent train service from New York to Philadelphia. The trip takes about 90 minutes.

2. Conferences sessions

CANT 2026 will meet in-person from Monday, July 13, to Thursday, July 16, in the Science Center on the fourth floor of the CUNY Graduate Center. On these four days there will be in-person talks and also Zoom talks. There will be a problem session every afternoon of the conference. All lectures will be broadcast live on Zoom.

There will be Zoom-only sessions on Friday, July 17, and Saturday, July 18.

3. Registration

As always, CANT operates on a zero budget. There is no registration fee and also no reimbursement for travel expenses.
Please register for the conference by sending an email to:

additivecombinatorics@gmail.com

4. ZOOM LOGIN

All lectures, both in person and remote, will be broadcast live on Zoom. The Zoom login is:

Meeting ID: 840 6618 4717
Passcode: 304403

5. YOUTUBE Channel

This year we are also trying to livestream the CANT 2026 lectures on the YouTube channel:

Combinatorial and additive number theory (CANT)

Videos of the lectures will also be available on this YouTube channel at the conclusion of the conference.

6. Entering the CUNY Graduate Center

When you enter the building at 365 Fifth Avenue (between 34th and 35th Streets), you will need to show ID and say that you are attending the mathematics conference in the Science Center on the fourth floor. .

7. Food and coffee

There will be coffee, bagels, and muffins at the start of each morning session. There is a cafe on the first floor of the CUNY Graduate Center that serves coffee, sandwiches, salads, and other light fare.

For lunch, there are also myriad restaurants within one or two blocks of the Graduate Center. There are two different Starbucks within 100 yards of the Graduate Center, and several nearby kosher restaurants.

8. For CANT 2026 speakers

The conference program and abstracts are posted on this website. Abstracts of talks are also listed on researchseminars.org. Please check your listing.

The conference program is tightly packed with 80 talks, and the schedule will be followed closely. If you are giving your talk on Zoom, you must be able to login to Zoom easily and share your slides online.

9. Conference proceedings

Springer will again publish the proceedings of CANT 2026. The title of the volume will be: Combinatorial and Additive Number Theory VIII. If you wish to submit a paper, the deadline for submission is November 1, 2026. All papers will be refereed.

10. Hotel information: Caveat emptor

There are many hotels close to the CUNY Graduate Center. Prices are usually high, and it might be worse this year because the World Cup Final is in New York/New Jersey on Sunday, July 19. Hotels will likely raise their rates.

11. MoMath and the Morgan Library

There are great museums in New York. The Morgan Library and Museum is on Madison Avenue and 36th Street, around the corner from the Graduate Center. The website is: themorgan.org.

MoMath, the National Museum of Mathematics, is located at 635 Sixth Avenue (near 19th Street). Admission is free on Thursday afternoon from 3:00 - 7:00 p.m. The museum's website is: momath.org.
